Lent 2: The Whip

Psalm Reading	Old Testament Reading	Epistle Reading	Gospel Reading
Psalm 27	Genesis 15:1-12, 17-18	Philippians 3:17-4:1	Luke 13:31-35 or Luke 9:28-36

Leader: The Lenten symbol we bring to the cross today is the whip, an instrument of power and violence. Today in our Scripture readings we also consider the promises of God to Abram, freely given, without coercion. Because Abram trusted God, he was brought into right relationship, into God’s own covenantal righteousness .

People: Lord Jesus Christ, Son of God, have mercy on us. Too often we do violence in our relationships. We confess that we coerce, and are coerced, rather than living in trust. In the shadow of Your cross we cry, “Have mercy on us.”

Leader: God’s covenant with Abram came in deep and terrifying darkness. The new covenant Jesus offered in His blood came in the deep and terrifying darkness of our violence. In His life and death Jesus offered Himself, absorbing our violence and returning only love.

People: Lord Jesus Christ, Son of God, have mercy on us. We live in the deep and terrifying darkness of our own violence. We confess our entrapment by the powers of this world. In the shadow of Your cross we cry, “Have mercy on us.”

Leader: Let us pray together . . .

ALL:

*O God, whose glory it is always to have mercy:
We look at Jesus, and we look at ourselves,
and we confess the great difference.*

*Deliver us from our violence;
conform us to His love.*

We admit our helplessness apart from Your grace.

We thank You that through the resurrection

Your grace abundantly pardons and transforms us!

Through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

His Providence Ministry

His Providence is a new ministry at our church, seeking to serve the women of our community. This ministry comes from a deep personal desire to give back the love my children and I were shown at a time when we needed it most. We will forever testify and give Him all the glory for His Provision! This is the desire of my heart, for all women who have been struck down and hurt deeply in life, to be given a fresh start and to be loved on by the church.

His Providence is a COST-FREE store where women can come "shop" for everything they may need; from the basics of pjs, to an outfit for a job interview. Children's clothes will also be available. Basic toiletry kits will be provided and most importantly a Bible will be placed in each woman's hands before they leave.

Room 203, right up the stairs outside the Sanctuary, is serving as His Providence right now. Many clothes have been donated, sorted through, and hung up by Sam Bache, a true God-send from the preschool. Toiletry kits have graciously been put together by Lorraine Garren. Contact me if you have a desire to help with this ministry in any way and please get the word out to the community!

Blessings,
Amber Tucker
